

Long Live Longboards!

Good weather brought great attendance to the championship longboard races at Plumas Eureka Ski Bowl March 21 2010. In the men's finals, pictured right, Brett Marty won the championship, with Saylor Flett and Zach Orman taking second and third, respectively.

Allison Youngs finishes in front of two other women racers to advance to the finals. Youngs took third place overall, just behind second place Rebecca Dennis, not pictured.
